Crime

Unit 3 – Apr-Jul

Coroners Report

The coroner's jurisdiction is limited to determining who the deceased was and how, when and where they came by their death. When the death is suspected to have been either sudden with unknown cause, violent, or unnatural, the coroner decides whether to hold a post-mortem examination and, if necessary, an inquest.

Interrogation

Interrogation is interviewing as commonly employed by law enforcement officers, military personnel, and intelligence agencies with the goal of gaining useful information. Interrogation may involve using techniques, ranging from developing a rapport with the suspect to outright torture.

Improvisation

Creating something without any planning. Making something up in the moment.

Police/ Incident Report

Statements and information the Police gather at the scene of the crime or during the investigation.
