

Mrs Palmer Assistant Headteacher

Hello everyone. My name is Mrs Palmer and I am Assistant Headteacher at Hillcrest School. I look forward to working with you all and supporting you through your Hillcrest journey. I lead on curriculum and assessment, I will work with your teachers to ensure you have a wide range of subjects to study to develop your skills and understanding in different subjects. I will also communicate with your parents and carers to provide them with regular feedback in the form of a school report, to celebrate your fantastic achievements and ways in which we can support you to reach your maximum potential. See you all soon.
